PREFACE.

We would tender our hearty thanks to those who kindly contributed their efforts to aid us in the preparation of "White Robes," which we have carefully arranged and prepared, and now present to our friends, trusting, upon examination, it will recommend itself, and prove a continual feast of song. Feeling that no boasting, glowing sentences (as is often the case in a preface) can make up for imperfect contents, we therefore send forth our "White Robes" wholly on its merits, hoping it will give immense satisfaction, and that all who possess it here may be entitled to a "white robe" also in that "Beautiful haven far over the sea."

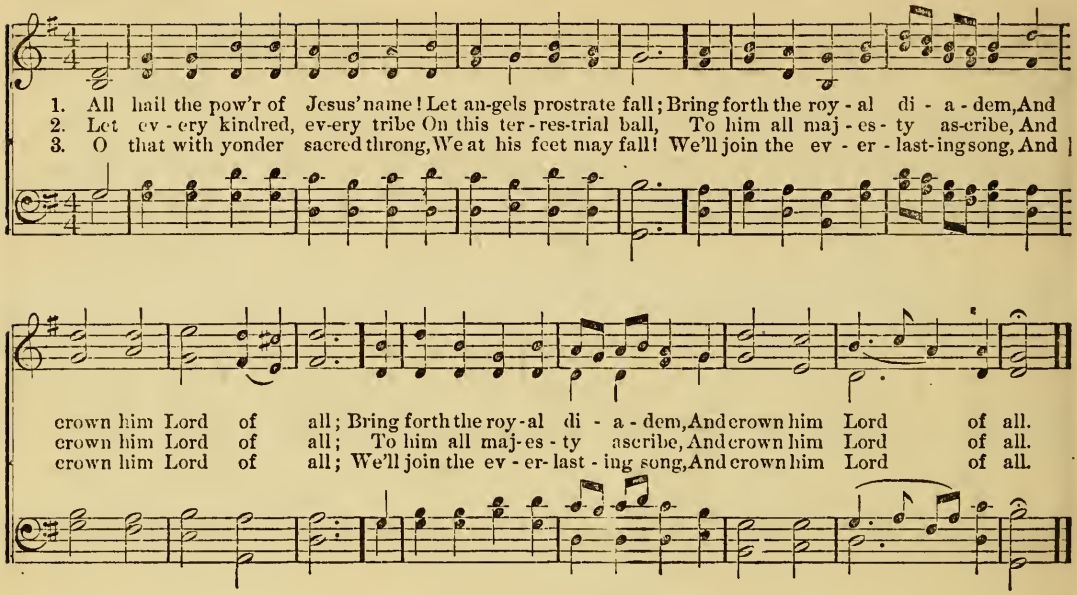
E. PERRONNET. O. HOLDEN.



Tune, —"CORONATION."

1 Am I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

3 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory thro' the skies,
The glory shall be thine.
In robes of victory thro' the skies,
The glory shall be thine. WATTS.

Tune,—"DUKE STREET."

1 Jehovah reigns; his throne is high;
His robes are light and majesty;
His glory shines with beams so bright
No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe;
His justice guards his holy law;
His love reveals a smiling face;
His truth and promise seal the grace.

3 Through all his works his wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs;
His power is sovereign to fulfill
The noblest counsels of his will. WATTS.

NEW BOOKS FOR GIRLS AND BOYS

IN SCHOOLS AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Welcome Chorus. New book for the higher schools, as Seminaries, Academies and High Schools. By W. S. TILDEN. Price $1.00. This is an elegant book of its kind, and with its elegance is a great deal of good, solid, practical information and musical exercise. Mr. Tilden is a well known teacher and superintendent of music in schools, and this is some of his best work.

Song Bells. The latest book for Common Schools. By L. O. EMERSON. It is skilfully put together, as in fact we should expect of the talented author, contains the usual amount of fresh, genial music and songs, which make the merry thoughts of children spring with a still lighter bound; is full of pure sentiments, and is, on the whole, a book much to be desired.

The above are the newest books; but only a little older, and entirely worthy of the best society, are

The Grammar School Choir. By W. S. TILDEN. Is literally a "high-class book," designed for the upper classes of Grammar Schools, but will do very well for High Schools. Well worth examining. Price 60c.

The Whippoorwill. By Dr. W. O. PERKINS. Is a genial and capital book for Common Schools.

Song Echo. By H S. PERKINS. Is a well known favorite collection of vocal music for schools of all grades. Has sold very largely.

The Beacon Light. By J. H. TENNEY and E. A. HOFFMAN. Leads off the bright list of Sunday School Song Books for 1881, and being in advance, would seem to be able to keep there. It certainly is one of the best that has been published, its contents are almost entirely new, yet good enough to be permanently popular. Both authors unite experience and talent in an eminent degree, and their Beacon Light, will soon be the favorite light of many thousands. Price 30 cents.

Light and Life. By R. M. McINTOSH. The second in order of appearance, but second to none in quality. The Sabbath School field is perfectly immense, and it requires many more than two good books to fill it. Good News, the previous work of this talented compiler, was very popular in its own section, and Light and Life, if it does nothing more than follow in the footsteps of the other, will be a great success. Price 35 cents.

The well approved books of the last five years, which books mark a new era in the Sunday School publications of the firm, are

The River of Life. (35 cts.) PERKINS and BENTLEY.
Shining River. (35 cts.) By H. S. and W. O. PERKINS.
White Robes. (30 cts.) By ABBEY and MUNGER.
Good News. (35 cts.) By R. M. McINTOSH.
Gospel of Joy. (35 cts.) By Rev. S. ALMAN.
Choral Praise. (20 cts.) By Rev. J. H. WATERBURY.
